

I signed up for this Indiana law because we were using our answering machine to screen calls so we would not have to listen to pressured garbage from telemarketers. At the present time we can answer our phone without this hassle. I would very much like the Indiana law to be left alone. Thanks you. Vernon C. Slack